

Legal Action of Wisconsin provides children and family law services mostly to clients who are or have been victims of domestic violence, and other specialized populations.

We work closely with domestic violence shelters, local law enforcement, and other safety agencies to help ensure our clients and their families are safe.

We often assist clients with issues related to:

- Domestic Abuse, Harassment, Child Abuse, and Individual at Risk Restraining Orders and Injunctions
- Divorce, Legal Separation, and Annulment
- Child Custody and Physical Placement
- Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (UCCJEA) Litigation
- Maintenance and Child Support
- Modification of Divorce, Paternity, Custody, Placement, Maintenance, or Child Support Judgments
- Paternity
- Family Law Appeals

We also have expertise in matters related to:

- Termination of parental rights cases
- Adoption cases
- Child protective service/juvenile court cases

- Third-party/grandparent visitation cases
- Foster care cases
- Other jurisdictional issues/challenges including Uniform Interstate Family and Support Act (UIFSA), Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA), and Hague Convention

About Us

As the state's largest non-profit law firm providing free civil legal services, we are a driving force making meaningful change in thousands of lives by ensuring the civil legal system works for everyone.

Additional Services

Rarely do our clients face just a single problem. We also help clients maintain safe and affordable housing, remove barriers to employment, resolve consumer finance issues, access and maintain public benefits, and secure victim support and protection. Additionally, we provide legal services for specialized populations including veterans, seniors, farmworkers, and those near release or recently released from prison.
